

Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED, AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY!

Alliance of Multispecialty Research, LLC (AMR, LLC), is permitted by federal privacy laws to make uses and disclosures of your health information for purposes of treatment, research, patient contact, and health care operations. Protected health information is the information we create and obtain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documenting your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, and applying for future clinical research study participation.

Examples of uses of your health information for treatment purposes are:

- A Coordinator obtains treatment information about you and records it in a health record.
- During the course of your study participation, the physician determines he/she may need to consult with another specialist in the area. He/she will share the information with such specialist and obtain his/her input.

Example of use of your health information for research purposes:

We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your protected health information.

Example of use of your health information for patient contact purposes:

We may contact you to provide you with appointment reminders, with information about treatment alternatives, or with information about other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Example of use of your health information for health care operations:

We may obtain services from business associates such as quality assessment, quality improvement, outcome evaluation, protocol and clinical guidelines development, training programs, credentialing, medical review, legal services. We will share information about you with such business associates as necessary to obtain these services.

Example of use of your health information for payment purposes:

We will disclose information about you to obtain payment from the research study sponsors.

Your Health Information Rights

The health and study payment records we maintain are the physical property AMR, LLC. You have the following rights with respect to your Protected Health Information

1. Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your health information by delivering the request in writing to our office—we are not required to grant the request, but we will comply with any request granted;
2. Obtain a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information ("Notice") by making a request at our office;
3. Right to inspect and copy your health record—you may exercise this right by delivering the request in writing to our office; appeal a denial of access to your protected health information except in certain circumstances;

Right to request that your health care record be amended to correct incomplete or incorrect information by delivering a written request to our office. (The physician or other health care provider is not required to make such amendments.)

4. You may file a statement of disagreement if your amendment is denied, and require that the request for amendment and any denial be attached in all future disclosures of your protected health information;
5. Right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your health information as required to be maintained by law by delivering a written request to our office. An accounting will not include internal uses of information for treatment or operations, disclosures made to you or made at your request, or disclosures made to family members or friends in the course of providing care;
6. Right to confidential communication by requesting that communication of your health information be made by alternative means or at an alternative location by delivering the request in writing to our offices.
7. Right to be notified in the event that we (or a Business Associate) discover a breach of your protected health information.

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact Allison Robinson, Alliance of Multispecialty Research, Inc., 3475 Richmond Road 3rd Floor, Lexington, KY 40509 (phone: 859-977-7154) in person or in writing, during normal business hours. She will provide you with assistance on the steps to take to exercise your rights.

Our Responsibilities

AMR, LLC is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information as required by law;
- Provide you with a notice as to our duties and privacy practices as to the information we collect and maintain about you;
- Abide by the terms of this Notice;
- Notify you if we cannot accommodate a requested restriction or request;
- Accommodate your reasonable requests regarding methods to communicate health information with you; and
- Accommodate your request for an accounting of disclosures.

We reserve the right to amend, change, or eliminate provisions in our privacy practices and access practices and to enact new provisions regarding the protected health information we maintain. If our information practices change, we will amend our Notice. You are entitled to receive a revised copy of the Notice by calling and requesting a copy of our "Notice" or by visiting our office and picking up a copy.

To Request Information or File a Complaint
